

ARUN DISTRICT COUNCIL

REPORT TO THE STANDARDS COMMITTEE ON 23 June 2022

SUBJECT: Member Learning & Development - Draft Member Induction Programme

REPORT AUTHOR: Solomon Agutu – Interim Head of Law and Governance & Monitoring Officer
DATE: June 2022
EXTN: 37610
AREA: Corporate Support – Law & Governance

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

This reports presents a draft 2023 post-election induction programme for comment and discussion.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

That Officers be authorised to develop this draft and ensure that the programme is funded during the budget making process..

1. BACKGROUND:

1.1 Local elections are due to take place in May 2023. This document sets out proposals for an induction programme to assist in Members' initial orientation to the role, to the council as an organisation generally, to Arun as a place and an introduction to key partners.

1.2 The purpose of induction is to provide information and support to incoming Members (including those retaining seats), which will engender an understanding of Arun's corporate objectives, the council's structure, its chief Officers, facilities and important policies and procedures. It should also help Members to identify and meet with key partners.

1.3 The attached programme (appendix 1) is for discussion in order to allow it to be developed further.

2. PROPOSALS
