

CSPL local government ethical standards 15 best practice recommendations

Name of local authority: Arun District Council

1: Local authorities should include prohibitions on bullying and harassment in codes of conduct. These should include a definition of bullying and harassment, supplemented with a list of examples of the sort of behaviour covered by such a definition.

Progress:

Awaiting issue of new Model Code.

2: Councils should include provisions in their code of conduct requiring councillors to comply with any formal standards investigation, and prohibiting trivial or malicious allegations by councillors.

Progress:

Current Arun Code needs strengthening on this area but awaiting issue of new Model Code.

3: Principal authorities should review their code of conduct each year and regularly seek, where possible, the views of the public, community organisations and neighbouring authorities.

Progress:

Awaiting issue of new Model Code.

4: An authority's code should be readily accessible to both councillors and the public, in a prominent position on a council's website and available in council premises.

Progress:

Currently complied with – published on our website here. Hard copies are available on demand.

5: Local authorities should update their gifts and hospitality register at least once per quarter, and publish it in an accessible format, such as CSV.

Progress:

Currently complied with – included in Councillor profiles on our website here.

6: Councils should publish a clear and straightforward public interest test against which allegations are filtered.

Progress:

Currently complied with and referenced within our Local Assessment Procedure, para 4.3(f). The Procedure is available to view here.

7: Local authorities should have access to at least two Independent Persons.

Progress:

Currently complied with - Arun District Council have 4 x Independent Persons.

8: An Independent Person should be consulted as to whether to undertake a formal investigation on an allegation, and should be given the option to review and comment on allegations which the responsible officer is minded to dismiss as being without merit, vexatious, or trivial.

Progress:

Currently complied with and referenced within our Local Assessment Procedure at para 4.3(e).

9: Where a local authority makes a decision on an allegation of misconduct following a formal investigation, a decision notice should be published as soon as possible on its website, including a brief statement of facts, the provisions of the code engaged by the allegations, the view of the Independent Person, the reasoning of the decision-maker, and any sanction applied.

Progress:

Currently complied with and referenced within our Local Assessment Procedure at Para

10: A local authority should have straightforward and accessible guidance on its website on how to make a complaint under the code of conduct, the process for handling complaints, and estimated timescales for investigations and outcomes.

Progress:

Currently complied with and published on our website here.

11: Formal standards complaints about the conduct of a parish councillor towards a clerk should be made by the chair or by the parish council as a whole, rather than the clerk in all but exceptional circumstances.

Progress:

Not currently specifically referenced with the Local Assessment Procedure. Review of the Procedure is underway and will be progressed further when new Model Code is issued.

12: Monitoring Officers' roles should include providing advice, support and management of investigations and adjudications on alleged breaches to parish councils within the remit of the principal authority. They should be provided with adequate training, corporate support and resources to undertake this work.

Progress:

Currently complied with.

13: A local authority should have procedures in place to address any conflicts of interest when undertaking a standards investigation. Possible steps should include asking the Monitoring Officer from a different authority to undertake the investigation.

Progress:

Referenced within our Local Assessment Procedure at para 5.2.

14: Councils should report on separate bodies they have set up or which they own as part of their annual governance statement, and give a full picture of their relationship with those bodies. Separate bodies created by local authorities should abide by the Nolan principle of openness, and publish their board agendas and minutes and annual reports in an accessible place.

Progress:

Currently complied with - Annual Governance Statement is published on our website here.

15: Senior officers should meet regularly with political group leaders or group whips to discuss standards issues.

Progress:

Standards Committee to decide whether current reporting arrangements are sufficient.
